2008-09 Preview

The Panthers return eight letterwinners including three starters from last season's 24-8 squad that tied for the Great Lakes Valley Conference East Division title, received a Top 25 ranking, and earned a national record breaking 34th trip to the NCAA tournament. Fourth-year head coach Todd Lee received the 2008 Great Lakes Valley Conference Coach of the Year award for producing his best season at Kentucky Wesleyan.

Panthers to play 22 Midwest Region games plus the inaugural Owensboro Classic

The 27-game schedule features 18 contests at the Owensboro Sportscenter including the inaugural Owensboro Classic plus 22 Midwest Region games (formerly Great Lakes).

First-time foes include Division II members King College from Bristol, Tenn.; and Lake Erie College from Painesville, Ohio; along with NAIA schools Cardinal Stritch University from Milwaukee, Wis.; and University of St. Francis from Fort Wayne, Ind.

Returning to the Panthers non-conference slate after a 58-year absence is Asbury, plus recent opponents Glenville State, Goshen, Tiffin, and Union.

The inaugural Owensboro Classic, co-hosted with Brescia at the Sportscenter, will have St. Francis and Union participating.

Under a new NCAA regionalization scheduling initiative, Division II schools may count schools that touch their state as in-region games. Seven states border Kentucky – Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Ohio, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia. Glenville State, King and Lake Erie add to the Panthers needs along with Great Lakes Valley Conference.

The GLVC Tournament will be played on March 6-8 at the home site of the league's top seed. Five league foes participated in the NCAA Tournament in 2008.

T. J. Smith receives All-America recognition

Senior guard T. J. Smith received honorable mention All-America recognition by The Sporting News in their preseason basketball publication. The 6-foot-2, 175-pounder from Gardena, Calif., finished seventh in NCAA assists with 6.9 per game last season. He was the Panthers third leading scorer with 13.6 points per contest and led the squad with 72 steals in starting all 32 games. Smith earned third-team All-Great Lakes Valley Conference status by the league coaches in 2008.

KWC selected to finish first in GLVC East Division

Kentucky Wesleyan has been selected as the favorites to claim the East Divisional crowns in the 2008-09 Great Lakes Valley Conference Men's Basketball Preseason Coaches Poll.

The Panthers edged Northern Kentucky and Lewis to receive the nod as the favorite in the East. KWC was one of three teams in the East to receive first-place votes while collecting 32 total points to lead the pack.

The GLVC Championship, featuring the league's top eight teams, will be hosted on March 6-8 at the home site of the league's top seed.

HEAD BASKETBALL COACH

(University of South Dakota '86)

Appointment: May 19, 2005

2008 Great Lakes Valley Conference Coach of Year
2008 Division II Bulletin Coach of the Month - January

Todd Lee enters his fourth season as head basketball coach at Kentucky Wesleyan College.

He became the Panthers 21st head coach in the 99-year basketball history on May 19, 2005.

Lee's first roster in 2005-06 was thin after the Panthers received NCAA restrictions prior to his arrival in Owensboro. He played most of the schedule with just four scholarship players. They posted a 7-19 overall record and a sixth place finish in the East Division of the Great Lakes Valley Conference at 4-15. KWC lost seven contests by five or less with very limited talent.

His coaching career spans 20 seasons including 12 at Division I, four at Division II, two in the pros and two at the junior college level.

Lee, 43, came to Kentucky Wesleyan after spending eight

The 2008 Great Lakes Valley Conference Coach of the Year produced his best season at KWC with a 24-8 record, a tie for the GLVC East Division title, a Top 25 ranking, and a national record breaking 34th trip to the NCAA tournament.

"This is an unbelievable opportunity. Kentucky Wesleyan College has a national championship tradition and the strong national reputation of the Great Lakes Valley Conference is outstanding. It is a privilege and honor to coach at a great school with high academic standards and basketball heritage."

His win totals have jumped from seven in 2006 to 13 in 2007 and 24 in 2008. Lee also improved his league wins from four in 2006 to 14 in 2008.

KWC was the NCAA's 25th most improved squad team in 2006-07 after compiling a 13-14 record, marking an NCAA plus-six margin from the previous season, and a seventh place finish in the East Division of the Great Lakes Valley Conference at 6-13.

Highlights from his second season includes his first win over a nationally ranked squad when the Panthers defeated No. 24 Drury 62-53 and twice coming from 15-point deficits in the second half at Division I Western Kentucky to cut their lead to two (52-50) with 7:51 left, and to three (70-67) with 50 seconds remaining before falling 74-67.

seasons as an assistant coach at UC-Irvine including his last four as associate head coach and his 11th overall working with head coach Pat Douglass.

The native of Huron, South Dakota also served three years on Douglass' staff at Division II powerhouse California State University at Bakersfield. The Roadrunners compiled a 75-16 record, made three trips to the NCAA, won two West Region titles enroute to the Elite Eight and captured the 1997 NCAA Division II national championship with a 29-4 record.

During his tenure at UC Irvine, the Anteaters won 122 games including 93 in the past five seasons. They posted three consecutive 20-win seasons (2001, 2002 and 2003), won two consecutive regular-season Big West Conference titles (2001 & 2002, the school's first) and twice secured spots in the National Invitation Tournament in 2001 and 2002.

Lee previously was an assistant coach for two seasons with the Rapid City (SD) Thrillers of the Continental Basketball Association. During those two years, the Thrillers posted the CBA's top records of 44-12 in 1993 and 37-19 in 1994 under head coach of the NBA's

Sacramento Kings Eric Musselman.

While serving as an assistant coach at Rapid City, Lee organized and coached the first CBA or NBA professional basketball team to tour China and compete against the Chinese National Army, with his squad posting a perfect 5-0 record in September, 1992. He also served as an assistant coach for the CBA Western Conference All-Stars both seasons at Rapid City.

Prior to coaching in the CBA, Lee was an assistant at the University of San Diego

(1989-92) under Hank Egan, an assistant coach with the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers.

Lee, who began his coaching career as an assistant at Southwestern (Jr.) College in Chula Vista, Calif., earned his master's degree in education from Azusa Pacific University in 2003. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of South Dakota in 1986.

He and his wife, Kim, a native of Evansville, Ind., have three sons, Carson, Jackson and Peyton

Derrick Tilmon

ASSISTANT BASKETBALL COACH

(Southern Illinois University '00)

Appointment: September 14, 2006

Derrick Tilmon enters his third season as assistant men's basketball coach at Kentucky Wesleyan College.

Tilmon, 31, spent the 2005-06 season as an assistant at NAIA Shorter College in Rome, Ga. His coaching responsibilities also included monitoring academics progress, recruiting, scouting, organizing travel, video exchange and summer camps.

Prior to Shorter, Tilmon played professionally for five years in Europe. He earned a Netherlands All-Star team membership and a finalist spot in the Netherlands championship series.

Tilmon started his collegiate playing days as a freshman at Hiwassee Junior College in Madisonville, Tenn. (1966-97) before completing his career at Div. I Southern Illinois University, where he started at power forward and center for three seasons (1997-2000). He helped the Salukis to a 20-13 record and the second round of the NIT as senior in 2000 for former SIU and now Illinois head coach Bruce Webber and finished 13th on all-time career blocked shot list with 58 in 82 games played.

Lee added, "It says a lot to me that Coach Weber called and said the Derrick was one of his all-time favorite players to coach. He talked to me at great length about his strong character, his work ethic and values. He told me because of those strengths, he knows Derrick will be a very successful coach."

He graduated from Hiwassee with an associate of arts degree in 1997 and Southern Illinois with a bachelor's degree in health education in 2000. Tilmon and his wife, Nicole, have a son, Derrick Jr.

Kyle Hankins

ASSISTANT BASKETBALL COACH

(Morehead State University '06)

Appointment: July 9, 2007

Kyle Hankins begins his second season as assistant men's basketball coach at Kentucky Wesleyan College.

Hankins, 25, spent the 2006-07 season as an assistant at Brescia University in Owensboro. His coaching responsibilities will include monitoring academics progress, recruiting, scouting, organizing travel, video exchange and summer camps.

"We are very pleased to add Kyle to our coaching staff," said Lee. "He played Division I basketball at Morehead State and having spent a year in Owensboro at Brescia, he is very knowledgeable about Kentucky Wesleyan and basketball in the state.

"Kyle is young but very passionate about learning the game and coaching at this level. He will help our program in all aspects, especially with recruiting, scouting and player development."

Prior to coming to Owensboro, Hankins was the head coach of Club Indiana, an AAU team in Indianapolis for one season

"I am very excited for the opportunity to join the Kentucky Wesleyan College family," Hankins said. "To join Coach Lee and his staff is a tremendous opportunity. I look forward in helping the program return to their national championship prominence."

Hankins played at Morehead State where he was a four-year letterwinner and a member of the Eagles 2003 Ohio Valley Conference Regular Season Championship squad for head coach Kyle Macy. In high school, he was a first-team all-state honoree and Indiana All-Star in 2001 for Bloomington South High School.

The native of Bloomington, Ind., graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports marketing and management in 2006 from Morehead State.

Kentucky Wesleyan History

Center jump circle from Winchester campus restored

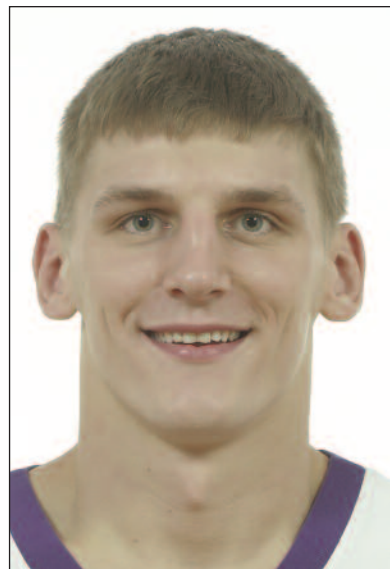

The center jump circle from the original basketball floor from KWC's former "Spencer Memorial Gymnasium," built in January 1926 on the old Winchester campus, has been restored. It is located on the wall next to the Boyd Cecil Ranch in the Winchester Center. The center jump circle has been preserved to its original look in 1951 when KWC left Winchester, including a purple "W" outlined in white. The Panthers defeated Transylvania, 34-23, in the first game at Spencer Gym on January 9, 1926 and went on to a career home record of 124 wins and 77 losses for a 63.5 winning percentage in 24 seasons (1926-51).

George Tinsley and Antonio Garcia Named to the NCAA Division II 50th Anniversary Elite Eight Team

George Tinsley

Kentucky Wesleyan basketball legends George Tinsley and Antonio Garcia were named to the NCAA 50th Anniversary Division II Men's Basketball Elite Eight 10-member team along with two coaches in March 2006

Tinsley, a 6-6 forward from Louisville, led the Panthers to four straight Elite Eight tournaments where they won three NCAA titles in 1966, 1968 and 1969, and finished third in 1967. He was twice chosen to the all-tournament team in 1968 and 1969, and received the Most Outstanding Player award in 1969. Tinsley averaged 15.9 points and 7.5 rebounds while shooting 47.1 percent from the field and 77.8 percent from the free throw line in 11 Elite Eight contests.

Garcia, a 6-8 center from Panama City, Panama, became one of only three players in Elite Eight history to be named Most Outstanding Player twice when he accomplished the feat in 1998 and 1999. He helped KWC to a national runner-up finish in 1998 and the national championship in 1999 with a record setting 31-2 mark. Garcia averaged 15.7 points, 16.5 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 1.8 steals, and shot 61.7 percent from the field in six Elite Eight games.

Joining Tinsley and Garcia on the team were Jerry Sloan, Evansville; Walt Frazier, Southern Illinois; Phil Jackson, North Dakota; Earl "The Pearl" Monroe, Winston-Salem; John Ebeling, Florida Southern; Ed Smallwood, Evansville; Kebu Stewart, Cal State-Bakersfield; and Marvin Webster, Morgan State.

Basketball Hall of Fame coaching inductees Arad McCutchan of Evansville, who won five NCAA titles (1959, 60, 64, 65, 71), and Clarence "Big House" Gaines of Winston-Salem State, the 1967 NCAA Champion and Division II winningest coach with 828 victories, were also selected.

The NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Championship began in 1957 and the 2008 championship will be played on March 25-28 in Springfield, Mass., where basketball was born.

Panthers Tour West Africa

One of the bonuses for Kentucky Wesleyan winning the 1966 NCAA Division II National Championship was a 45-day all expense paid trip to West Africa during the summer. The Panthers became the first small college champion to represent the United States in the annual goodwill tours sponsored by the United States State Department. The Panthers played exhibition games and gave demonstrations at clinics on their five West African nation tours.

Panthers Tour Europe

On August, 1985, the Panthers embarked on a twelve day tour of England and France. Kentucky Wesleyan played six exhibition games against the best professional teams in England. The all expense paid tour marked the second time Kentucky Wesleyan basketball traveled internationally.

Kentucky Wesleyan's First Home

Spencer Memorial Gymnasium 1926-1951 (Years 24, Won 135, Lost 79, Pct. Then use of the Winchester High School gym was obtained for basketball. It was necessary for the students to go clear across town on game nights to see the Panthers uphold the glory of their Alma Mater. Five hundred people would crowd the place, and when a good game was on all who wanted to could not get in.

As the teams got better, the demand for a better and bigger place grew. Then things began to happen. Interest was aroused, enthusiasm was stirred up, and the next thing the money was raised and Spencer Memorial Gymnasium was built.

ESPN Features Kentucky Wesleyan College

Selected as one of the Top 10 college basketball powerhouses

Kentucky Wesleyan was named one of the "Top 10 College Basketball Powerhouse Programs" by ESPN. The documentary was broadcast throughout the 2005-06 season on several ESPN networks through their Honor Roll series. The Panthers were the only non-Division I member on the special presentation.

The other nine institutions were Duke, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan State, North Carolina and UCLA, plus the women's programs at Connecticut and Tennessee.

The Owensboro Sportscenter, home of the Kentucky Wesleyan Panthers, is the largest arena in the Great Lakes Valley Conference and the 15th largest in the nation (NCAA Division II), with a seating capacity of 5,002.

Kentucky Wesleyan opened its playing career in the Sportscenter on February 26, 1951 before a full house against Centre College. The Panthers won 114-71.

Seventeen NCAA regional championships have been staged at the Owensboro Sportscenter.

The largest crowd ever to see a Kentucky Wesleyan game at the Sportscenter was 7,500 (standing room only) against Louisville on January 8, 1964, and Evansville on January 13, 1965.

Athletic Staff

Dr. Cheryl King President

Dr. Cheryl King begins his first year as president. She is the 32nd president of Kentucky Wesleyan College, and the second woman president in the college's history. The Owensboro native previous served as the Study Director for the National Commission on Adult Literacy, an independent, blue ribbon board comprised of national leaders and experts with the Council on Advancement of Adult Literacy based in New York City. Prior to joining the National Commission, King held the position of Vice President at KWC. She was appointed Commissioner of Kentucky Adult Education in 1996 and then served as Deputy Secretary for the Kentucky Cabinet for Workforce Development. King earned a bachelor of arts degree in education from Kentucky Wesleyan in 1970 and a masters in education and psychology from Western Kentucky University and a doctorate in education in organizational leadership from George Peabody College for Teachers at Vanderbilt University.

Marisue Coy NCAA Faculty Representative

Marisue Coy, assistant professor of English and education, enters her 24th year at Kentucky Wesleyan College and third as NCAA Faculty Representative. She graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan College with a degree in English and earned a master's degree from Western Kentucky University.

Gary Gallup Director of Athletics

Gary Gallup begins his third year as director of athletics at Kentucky Wesleyan College. He came to KWC from Nicholls State University in Thibodaux, La. where he served as associate athletics director for external relations for five years. Overall, he has 30 years of experience in Division I intercollegiate athletics, including 10 years as a director of athletics.

His duties at Nicholls State included the development and implementation of strategies to generate external financial support for the athletic department in addition to the overall operation and supervision of NSU's 15-sport program.

Since 2001, he has generated over $3,000,000 in revenue and has increased corporate sponsors from eight to 60. Gallup also increased booster club membership from 90 to over 200 members annually and quadrupled revenues in the Colonel Club.

Gallup established an athletic merchandising program, organized annual athletic department fundraising events plus other fan participation activities. He expanded the Colonel Sport Radio Network, placing football and basketball games on two cable TV stations and two internet outlets.

A native of Roswell, N.M., he also served as the radio "Voice of the Colonels" for baseball, men's and women's basketball, football, and softball during his five seasons at NSU.

Before joining Nicholls State, Gallup spent three years as director of athletic marketing at the University of New Orleans. Prior to UNO and a brief stint with Golden Gloves Boxing, he was the director of athletics at Texas-Pan American (1992-98), Lamar (1989-92) and Southern Utah (1987-89).

Gallup's athletic administration resume includes positions as assistant athletics director at Southern Methodist (1983-87), director of media relations and advertising at Wyoming (1981-83) and director of athletic promotions at Texas-El Paso (1977-81).

His career began in 1966 where he was the sports director for KDBC-TV and KROD radio in El Paso, Texas for eight years (1966-74). He then became sports director at WMTV-TV in Madison, Wis. (1974-77) before entering athletic administration.

Gallup graduated from the University of Texas-Dallas with a degree in management. He and his wife, Sharon, also a Roswell, N.M. native, have four children.

Glenn Young Associate Athletics Director

Glenn Young begins his 16th year with the athletics department at Kentucky Wesleyan and 55th year as public address announcer and game manager. He started announcing basketball games in 1954 when he was a freshman at KWC. Following his graduation from Kentucky Wesleyan in 1958, he received his master's and rank one from Western Kentucky University. An Owensboro, Ky. native, Young retired from the Daviess County Public Schools after 35 years in July 1993. Young also teaches in the education department and is the director of student teaching/field experience.

Roy Pickerill Sports Information Director

Roy Pickerill begins his 38th year with the Kentucky Wesleyan athletic program. He is responsible for the publicity for 13 intercollegiate sports. The College Sports Information Directors of America inducted him into the CoSIDA Hall of Fame in 1999. He also received the Warren Berg Award, presented to a college division member who has made an outstanding contribution to the field of sports information, in 1998. KWC's athletic publications have won 30 CoSIDA awards, including 20 "Best in the Nation." He also has received awards for writing and publications from CASE and the Public Relations Society of America. The Louisville, Ky. native graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan in 1975 with a degree in physical education.

Bridget Muniz Head Athletic Trainer

Bridget Muniz (pronounced moo-niece) enters her sixth year as head athletic trainer at Kentucky Wesleyan. The native of Pueblo, Colo. came to KWC after serving the past three years as head athletic trainer at Eaglecrest High School in Centennial, Colo. She is responsible for the care and prevention of athletic injuries for 11 intercollegiate sports. Muniz earned her bachelors degree in exercise science from Fort Lewis College in 1992 and her master's in exercise science from the University of Northern Colorado in 2003.

Jean Saalwaechter Administrative Assistant

Jean Saalwaechter begins her 12th year at Kentucky Wesleyan as administrative assistant. The Henderson, Ky. native also serves as cheerleader coach.

Joel D. Utley Voice of the Panthers

Joel Utley has called the play-by-play for 1,350 Kentucky Wesleyan basketball games in 47 years. He has the distinction of being the only broadcaster in the nation to call a record eight NCAA National Championship games. The Madisonville, Ky. native started broadcasting Kentucky Wesleyan games in 1961. Utley is the dean of all college basketball broadcasters in the state of Kentucky and rates in the top ten nationally for longevity. He graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan in 1974 with a degree in speech and drama.
